

PPIH is awarded “Most Honored Company” by Institutional Investor for the second straight year.

Pan Pacific International Holdings Corporation (“the company”) announced that it was chosen the first place in the retailing sector and “Most Honored Company” of the 2019 All-Japan Executive Team Rankings released by the U.S.-based Institutional Investor, one of the world’s leading financial information magazines on June 18, 2019.

About the 2019 All-Japan Executive Team Rankings

The rankings identify and honor superior IR activities of listed Japanese companies, based on the votes of institutional investors and analysts from around the world. The company won the “Most Honored Company” in the retailing sector. The Company was ranked first in the “Best CFOs” and “Best IR Programs”, and third in the “Best IR Professional”.

It was ranked first in the “Best CFOs” for six consecutive years since 2014.

The company is making its best effort to disclose corporate information fairly, timely and appropriately.

The company is establishing and keeping mutually good relationships to improve corporate value by communicating with stakeholders closely.

Thank you very much for your support.